

National Veterans Oral History Project

Preserving the legacy of Japanese American Veterans

Saturday, December 3, 2005 • 2:00 PM

at the Japanese American National Museum, 369 East First Street, Los Angeles

Join us for a panel discussion and update on this important collaborative project of the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress to gather and make accessible the stories of Japanese American veterans. Presentation will include a brief workshop on how to conduct oral histories.

Panelists: John Esaki, Director, Frank H. Watase Media Arts Center, Japanese American National Museum
Sarah Rouse, Senior Program Officer, Veterans History Project, Library of Congress
Catherine Tanaka, Secretary, National Japanese American Veterans Council
Steven Itano Wasserman, Hanashi Program Manager, Go For Broke Educational Foundation

Moderator: Art Hansen, Professor, California State University, Fullerton

Visit the award-winning National Museum Store for books, videos and other merchandise about the experiences of the Japanese American veterans. For more details, go online to www.janmstore.com.

FREE with Museum admission. Call 213.625.0414 for more information.

Presented by the Japanese American National Museum, in association with the Library of Congress, the National Japanese American Veteran's Council and the Go For Broke Educational Foundation.

Credits: 97.292.3E Gift of the Walter Muramoto Family. NRC.1997.94.10, NRC.1997.94.88, U.S. Army Photo, Courtesy of Harold Honda. 96.233.4, Gift of Frank S. Nakatani.

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

369 East First Street, Los Angeles, California 90012 • For more info call 213.625.0414 or visit www.janm.org • www.janmstore.org