MISSIONS OF COURAGE AND COMPASSION APPLICATION

Are you working with an organization, school, sponsor, or adult over 18? Please state yes or no and include contact information here if applicable.

What will you spend the money on?

The following criteria will be considered in selecting featured projects:

- Clear relationship to promoting compassion and/or fighting inequality
- Realistic and well thought-out approach

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

By participating in the Missions of Courage and Compassion program, you agree that you and your project will be featured on Go For Broke National Educational Center's website and in GFBNEC's Defining Courage Exhibition.

All participants are required to submit a one page reflection and 5 photographs upon completing their project or within 3 months of beginning their project.

Return this application to the Defining Courage Exhibition or email to takeaction@goforbroke.org
